Putting Our Faith in Education

Dear Parents

Year 11 Prom

Year 11 pupils celebrated their final event of the school year at the annual Prom Night at Mercure Leeds Parkway Hotel, Bramhope. The event was very well attended. Dresses, suits, shoes and limousines were a sight to behold!

Reflection for Year 8

Year 8 pupils took part in residential religious retreats at Sneaton Castle, near Whitby, this week. The programme included many opportunities for them to reflect on the theme of Faith in Action. Pupils were involved in discussions, devising and performing a play and a seaside walk. In the evenings they were led in prayer and meditation and on the last morning they prepared a marvellous liturgy. The retreat was an opportunity for our students to reflect, pray, make friends and to think about their futures. Many thanks to Mrs Hayden (Visit Leader), Mr Edney and Mrs Jobson for spending nights away from their families to share such a special time with the pupils. The staff at Sneaton Castle praised our pupils for their high levels of commitment and excellent behaviour throughout the visits.

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes 2017

Over forty Year 10 pupils, accompanied by staff, are taking part in the annual diocesan pilgrimage to Lourdes which departs for France next Thursday, 6 July. The Youth Section are there to care for sick pilgrims, to acknowledge their faith and to spend time in the healing atmosphere of Lourdes. Our thoughts and prayers are with them as take upon themselves the responsibilities of caring for others.
